Lt. Colonel Dave Grossman

Iowa Region 5 Homeland Security presents Lt. Col. Dave Grossman with "Lessons from Jonesboro, Littleton, and Vietnam: How Kids are Learning to Kill and Learning to Like It."

About the Speaker:

Lt. Colonel Dave Grossman is one of the world's leading experts on interpersonal aggression and violence. He was a West Point Psychology Professor and an Army Ranger. His books include the Pulitzer nominated, "On Killing: The Psychological Cost of Learning to Kill in War and Society" and "Stop Teaching Our Kids to Kill: A Call to Action Against TV, Movie and Video Game Violence." Colonel Grossman was a trainer of health professionals, police, and first responders, after the school shootings in: Jonesboro, Arkansas; Springfield, Oregon; Littleton, Colorado; West Nickel Mines Amish School, Pennsylvania; and Virginia Tech. He has also presented his findings to over 20 colleges and universities in North America and Europe; was invited to present to the annual conventions of the AMA, the American Psychiatric Association, and the American Psychological Association, and was called as an expert witness and consultant in the Timothy McVeigh, Oklahoma City bombing case and the Paducah school shooting case. He has testified before US Senate and House committees and eight different state legislatures, and his research has been cited by the President of the United States in a national address.
